SUMMARY

Computer Science and Software Development student with hands-on experience in C# and React development and Python data preparation. Skilled at translating user requirements into practical workflows and organizing data for teammates to build on. Curious, detail-oriented, and seeking an internship to contribute usable software and well-prepared data while learning from an experienced team.

PROJECT EXPERIENCE

OTW.SHOP — Supplement E-Commerce Website

Full-Stack Developer

- Translated user requirements into customer and admin workflows, covering product discovery, checkout, inventory, and order management.
- Built the application with C#, ASP.NET Core MVC, and MySQL, connecting the shopping experience with store operations.

Economic Crops Chat — AI Advisory Chatbot for Economic Crops

Data Preparation & Frontend Contributor

- Collected and cleaned information on 11 economic crops across 77 Thai provinces, organizing local conditions and planting guidance for a teammate's RAG implementation.
- Designed the React frontend, connecting agricultural knowledge with an interface for users to ask crop-planning questions.

THAI TAY — Construction Material Price Intelligence

Project Initiator & Developer | In Progress

- Proposed the project to address material price uncertainty and built a React interface for exploring historical prices and trends.
- Preparing government reference-price data with Python and Pandas, checking missing values and material consistency for planned 1–3 month forecasts.
